GIVE PROGRAM OF SINFONIETTA SUNDAY NIGHT

The Saint Louis Sinfonietta, which will present the first in the winter series of concerts under the sponsorship of the Community Concert association in the Majestic theater at 8:30 o'clock Sunday night, will divide its program into two parts, with compositions by Johann Sebastian Bach, Christoph Willibald von Gluck and Joseph Haydn included among the opening numbers and works of Marcel Tournier, Morton Gould, Paul White and Johann Strauss following after the intermission.

The theater doors will open at 8:15 p. m. The Sinfonietta is under the direction of Paul Schreiber, conductor, with Gertrude Hopkins as harpist. Mr. Schreiber has had many years of experience as a professional violinist, and has worked with the conductors of the nation's great orchestras and with the most distinguished composers of modern times.

Show Fine Balance
The Sinfonietta made its initial tour in 1937, and soon drew the attention of the Community Concert Service, which arranged and expanded the tours until they now cover the United States, Canada and Mexico. Mr. Schreiber's programs are notable for their fine balance between the classic and the modern vein in composition.

Bach's "Arioso," a famous air from the suite No. 3 in D Major, will open the Sinfonietta's Sunday evening concert here. The suite is made up of short pieces, mostly dances of Bach's period, and the "Arioso" is one of the best known. Second number on the program will be von Gluck's "Overture to 'Iphigenia in Aulis.'" A century and three-quarters ago, Gluck, impatient with the inanities of Italian opera, perceived that the first step in the reform which seemed to him imperative, was the choice of a libretto capable of interesting a reasonably adult

Attorney Francis Worley, of York Springs R. 1, state assemblyman of Adams county for the past five years, Thursday night before the Hanover Kiwanis club advocated "A Federal Government for the World" to end war and preserve peace.

Worley asserted that the League of Nations and UN are federated forms of world government which place this planet at a social and political level similar to the American Federation of States formed as a make-shift move by this country after the Revolutionary war.

Burn Xmas Trees On Codori Field

About 200 adults and youngsters—mostly youngsters—gathered on Thursday night at Codori Field to watch the Christmas greens go up in flame and smoke under sponsorship of the Junior Police Club of the Gettysburg Recreation association.

While firemen stood by with a fire truck five large truckloads of trees gathered throughout the town were placed on a pile about 18 feet across and 12 feet high. At 8 o'clock the match was applied and flames leaped higher than neighboring houses. About 9 o'clock the firemen extinguished the last of the embers.

Members of the Junior police today apologized for any trees they may have missed while making the collection, explaining that darkness overtook them before they had completed their tour of the town.

George M. Zerfing Marks Anniversary; Advertised In Times Daily For 20 Yrs.

Zerfing's hardware store this week observes the 20th anniversary of its establishment in Gettysburg. In December 1927, George M. Zerfing came here from Duncannon, surveyed the town, liked what he saw, and opened a store on Center Square, in what had been Blocher's jewelry store, early in January, 1928. The business, much enlarged, remains today at the same location, "Hardware on the Square."

From 1917 to 1927 Mr. Zerfing had been engaged in the hardware business with his father, A. O. Zerfing, in Duncannon. In looking around for a likely town in which to establish a store of his own, he came to Gettysburg. Mr. Zerfing's father died in 1941. The Duncannon store is now operated by another son, under the old name of A. O. Zerfing and Son.

4 Unmasked Bandits Rob Bank Of $114,000 In Daring Holdup

New Orleans, Jan. 9 (AP)—Four unmasked armed men held up a midtown New Orleans bank this morning and its president, A. P. Imahorn, said they escaped with $114,000 in cash.

The men forced their way into the bank five minutes before opening time, slugged a Negro janitor into unconsciousness and herded some 25 employees into locker rooms. They then forced the bank manager to unlock the vault.

Detective Joseph Tardo said the men took $60,000 from one section of the vault, and an estimated $54,000 from other parts of the safe and from the teller cages. Bank officials are still checking to determine the exact amount.

The Negro porter, Joseph L. Thomas, admitted the four men while he was letting early customers into the bank about 8:30 o'clock.

The bandits immediately ushered eight women employees into one locker room and about six men into

SEEK FACTS ON NEED FOR FARM WORKERS IN '48

The Adams county office of the Pennsylvania Employment Service today sought the cooperation of farmers throughout the county in setting up goals for recruitment of labor for the forthcoming farming season.

Despite the fact that there are 1,500 less persons employed in the county now than there were at the same time last year, workers for the harvest season will have to be recruited outside the county once again this year, E. A. Crouse, manager of the local office, said today.

Most of the loss in employment has been caused by women dropping out of the employment picture, Crouse said. Hundreds of women who worked during the war as an aid to the war effort have now returned to their homes and no longer wish to work in industry, he explained.

Picture Is Brighter

During 1947, the local office made 2,527 referrals of workers to employers and 2,118 placements resulted from those referrals. Of that number 429 were veterans and 1,333 women. In 1946 the office made 3,773 referrals, which resulted in 2,650 placements. Of the number 626 were veterans and 1,329 women.

The employment picture is becoming brighter for those who wish work, Crouse said, pointing out that a Littlestown garment factory has greatly increased its space and is seeking more workers and that at least one new industry which will employ a number from the county is being established in the Hanover area.

The demand of industry for labor—which is expected to reach new highs—will take many of those who usually aid in the harvest of crops and as a result the farm labor situation will probably be tighter than ever, particularly if the county has good crops this year. Weather conditions which cut the crop and spread out the harvest longer than normal aided during the last two years, but still labor was short, Crouse pointed out.

Need Data Early

Hundreds of additional workers will need to be recruited from outside the county, Crouse said, and as a result it will be necessary for the local office to know far in advance the number needed so that they can be secured. For the last five years the work of recruiting farm labor was performed by the Emergency Farm Labor office which passed out of existence last year. This year the PSES will have the job of getting the men and women needed.

In addition to securing harvest hands, the local office now has also the job of finding share croppers, tenant farmers and the like for agriculturists. Crouse asked those seeking tenant farmers, etc., to contact him at the local office.

REDS DISCOLOR TRUMAN TALK TO SUIT FANCY

By EDDY GILMORE
Moscow, Jan. 9 (AP)—Tass, the official Russian news agency, said today that President Truman's state of the Union address to Congress Tuesday "directly recognized an approaching economic crisis in the United States, whose population presently is suffering from inflation."

The Soviet press devoted considerable space to the President's message today for the first time since it was delivered.

A Tass dispatch, datelined Washington, said of the President's address:

"It praised the perpetual principles of the American system. It also contained many promises, expressed in generalizations, dealing with increases in living conditions and expanding the civil rights of the population."

"In Cold Silence"
The dispatch said the President concluded his message with an appeal to Americans to remember the great tasks of the United States—as if the entire world waits for American leadership.

Another Tass dispatch, datelined London and quoting the Washington correspondent of Reuters, the British news service, said the President was received coldly by Congress and that his message was received "in cold silence."

Still another dispatch dealt with the reaction of Henry A. Wallace to the presidential message.

Here is the way the big Moscow papers played the news today:

Pravda, the official organ of the Communist party, used all three stories—the Washington and London pieces and the Wallace item.

Izvestia, the organ of the government, used the Washington and London stories.

Trud, the trade union organ, used the Washington story.

Red Star, the Soviet army newspaper, used all three.

See Decision Soon In Refinery Strike

Galveston, Tex., Jan. 9 (AP)—The possibility of a decision on the nine-day strike at the Pan American refinery in Texas City, Tex., loomed today while an oil-hungry east coast clamored to President Truman for intervention.

Representatives of the striking CIO oil workers and the company met here last night, and a spokesman indicated some announcement might be made today.

The governor of North Carolina and the mayor of Baltimore appealed to the President and other government leaders yesterday for the release of fuel oil, frozen by the walkout.

A Pan American Refining corporation spokesman in New York City last night said "enough fuel to heat 750,000 homes for a week" had been tied up by the nine-day-old strike of workers at the company's plant in Texas City.

TAFT ASSAILS TRUMAN PLANS IN RADIO TALK

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—Senator Robert Taft (R-Ohio) says President Truman's program is the road to "national bankruptcy" and a "totalitarian state."

In a steaming radio attack last night the Republican presidential candidate described proposals in Mr. Truman's state of the union message as "the ghosts of the old New Deal with new trappings." Taft, who is chairman of the Republican Senate Policy committee, says flatly: "The Republican Congress proposes to go on with its program."

Concentrates on Taxes
Meanwhile Chairman Taber (R-NY) of the House Appropriations committee estimated the Truman program would cost $20,000,000,000 and said this would make tax reduction—a prime GOP target for 1948—an impossibility.

Taft centered his fire mainly on the President's domestic proposals, including a $40-per-person "cost of living" tax cut with an offsetting $3,200,000,000 boost in corporation taxes, compulsory curbs on inflation and a ten year plan to advance the social welfare of the nation.

Nobody could fail to agree with the President's objective of improving the lot of the people, the Ohioan said. But as for the President's ideas on how this should be done, he asserted:

"Playing Politics"
"Taken together they add up to national bankruptcy."

"Taken together they add up to a totalitarian state."

Calling Mr. Truman's tax plan "about as discriminatory a proposal as could be made," Taft added: "If followed to its logical conclusion he would ultimately exempt a large proportion of all income and shift all taxes into a very small proportion of the population."

Taft noted that the President came forth with his tax formula after twice vetoing GOP tax reduction bills last year. "It looks to me like playing politics with your money" the lawmaker said.

SNOW, COLD END MILD WEATHER

(By The Associated Press)

Snow, rain and colder weather ended at least temporarily today the fairly mild weather in parts of the midwest, east and the New England states.

Temperatures dropped to two below today at Pembina, N. D., and a "moderate" cold snap was forecast for the north central states tonight and tomorrow.

The snowfall in the Lake Superior region measured more than seven inches at Marquette, Mich., and six inches at Duluth, Minn. Rain and sleet were reported in sections from Youngstown, O., to Buffalo, N. Y., and snow was forecast for the New England area.

Temperatures in many sections were far above normal yesterday, with a high of 69 at Columbia, Mo., and 68 at St. Louis.

USO Is Awarded Honorable Discharge

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—President Truman awarded an "honorable discharge" today to the United Service Organizations (USO), which for seven years provided entertainment and comfort for the U. S. armed forces and their allies.

"The USO has fulfilled its commitment and discharged its wartime responsibility completely and with signal distinction," Mr. Truman said in a statement distributed in advance of a White House ceremony. "It therefore becomes my privilege to award an honorable discharge to the organization, to its member agencies, to the Camp Shows Affiliate, to the million and a half volunteers and to the thousands of devoted staff members."

Real Estate Men Would End Controls

Harrisburg, Jan. 9 (AP)—The Pennsylvania Real Estate Association recommended today the banishment of rent controls after February 29, as a means of "hastening the end of the Commonwealth's housing shortage."

"Housing has more than kept pace with the population increase during the past seven years," said Stanley A. Gillespie, of Greenville, retiring president, asserting: "The real cause (of the shortage) lies in the fact that people are occupying more space than before. If rent controls were lifted this condition would be corrected with great haste."

CALL OFF STRIKE

Trieste, Jan. 9 (AP)—A general strike which tied up Trieste yesterday was called off at midnight by the executive committees of the Communist-dominated United Syndicate of labor unions, which had ordered the stoppage to protest the trial of a group of partisans.

Mr. Codori also announced that there will be a large number of other exhibits from the Texas company, the B. F. Goodrich company and several roofing companies whose products are distributed by the Citizens Oil company.

The local concern was established by the late William F. Codori in 1917 when he acquired the Texaco distributorship. Upon his death in 1933 the company was taken over by his sons and daughters who have managed and expanded the firm by more than four-fold in the past 14 years. The Citizens Oil company is one of the oldest distributors of Texaco products in the United States. It is also the local distributor for B. F. Goodrich tires, tubes and auto and home supplies.

One of the more recent additions of the company is its roofing division under the management of Richard Codori, who is also directing the Farm Show with his brothers, John and Robert Codori, all of whom have been with the firm since the sons and daughters took over management.

Entry blanks for the cash prize contests are available at the company's offices, 46 York street, Gettysburg.

YOUTH SAVED FROM GALLOWS

Walla Walla, Wash., Jan. 9 (AP)—An hour and a half before Joseph Maish, 17-year-old youth, was to die on the gallows of the Washington state prison early today, Gov. Mon C. Wallgren commuted his sentence to 99 years life imprisonment.

Maish stabbed a high school girl to death at Vancouver, Wash., a year ago.

The governor had received many requests in recent days and up to the hour of his announcement calling upon him for executive clemency for the former Vancouver high school athlete. The state has never executed so young a person.

As late as last night, three of the jurors who convicted Maish of first degree murder recommended in wires to the governor that he take such action.

Maish had already eaten his "last meal" at the prison before the sentence was commuted. He asked for one thing, a cream puff, and attendants brought him a half dozen.

URGES SAVING OF FUEL OIL

Harrisburg, Jan. 9 (AP)—Governor James H. Duff asked Pennsylvanians today to cut the use of fuel oil and gasoline "by at least 15 per cent" to meet a "critical shortage" of petroleum products on the Eastern seaboard.

Declaring at a special news conference that immediate efforts are necessary to avoid hardships, the governor told reporters he already has directed a 15 per cent reduction in the consumption of fuel oil in commonwealth buildings and a similar cut in the gasoline used in all state automobiles.

Duff also said he will appoint a fuel oil coordinator and an operating committee within 24 hours "to work out an effective method of collaboration between the suppliers and users of petroleum products."

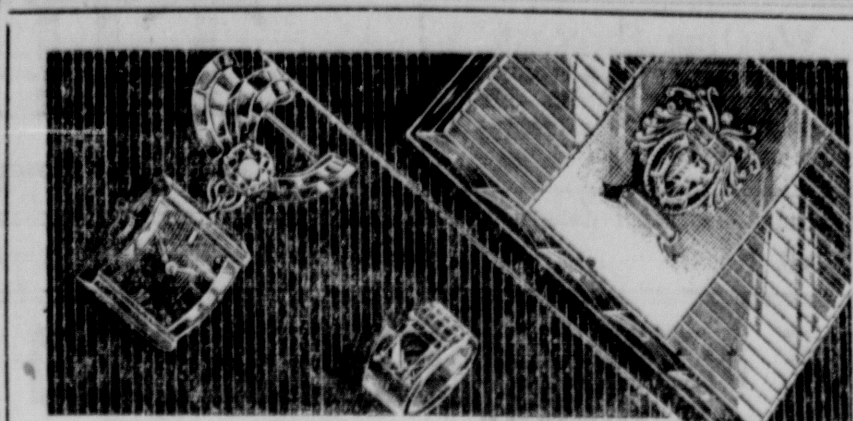

Although he said the various oil companies "will collaborate to alleviate hardship cases" the governor stated "unless the public is willing to take the time to understand the critical nature of the situation and unless they understand that they must cut the use of petroleum products, we are not going to be able to meet this crisis."

Today's Talk

PATHS

Paths are history's beginnings. It is said that the streets of Boston were once but cow paths, and if you have ever experienced the treading of them, often, when set in motion for a certain destination, only to turn up where you started from, you may well imagine that this statement is probably a fact!

Paths through thick wooded forests are to me most fascinating. I have myself beaten them out at my summer island retreat in Nova Scotia. And they become more beloved, and fragrant, with each new year. Paths, always lead to something interesting. Indeed the path itself is filled with interest. Hilarie Belloc must have at least liked the sound of the word path, for he called one of his finest books, "The Path to Rome." And how Thoreau must have loved the paths that he created around Walden Pond, and the one to his cabin door.

How nostalgic the mere recalling of the path that we used to take to the old swimming hole of our youth! Scores of joyous bare feet beat its path. I once read of a man who so loved to be a path maker that he stamped extra heavily so that he might help to leave something permanent behind. It's really something to create a path! I have never trod one without wondering about its origin, and why.

In my youth in the little town of Michigan, I recall how I used to drive a cow to pasture each day for a neighbor, receiving as my reward a quart of milk a day. I noted that as soon as I had turned the cow to its field that it took a certain path, so that it was beaten hard and dry. So I often used it to get to another end of the big acreage to watch the birds and to speculate upon the wonders all about in Nature's great garden.

There is a certain silent invitation to every footpath. The aroma of romance lingers there. The great Santa Fe trail, over which great modern trains now go, from day to day, was once but a footpath, blazed by Indians and pioneers. And many a street had its origin from some one's early walk. What a stir to the imagination is a footpath. And what a crosscut it often proves to be!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Pen-Chat."

WINTER MEMORY

In the boyhood that was mine,
Oh, so many years ago,
I would look with eyes a-shine
On the roadways white with snow.
Had it fallen through the night,
With the morning I could hear
With the rapture of delight
Tinkling sleigh bells, far and near.

Winter-time in years gone by
Had a music all its own.
Sledge and cutter drawing high
Sweetly made their coming known.
Until spring the snow would stay
On the highways where it fell
And the crisp air, night and day,
Bore the sound of many a bell.

Now into the roaring drains,
As it falls, the snow is thrown,
And there's little that remains
Of the winters I have known.
Boys are wakened at the morn—
Not with tinkling music sweet,
But the sound of motor horn
And the traffic of the street.

Growth and progress have their cost.
There's a price to pay for size.
Many lovely things are lost
For the greatness mortals prize.
If the snow should fall today
It will quickly disappear,
And the sound of sleigh bells gay
Children now will never hear.

WHAT WE KNOW ABOUT GOD

By Rev. Howard R. Gold, D.D.

Margaret C. Gold

Isaiah 40:28-31; John 14:8-14
Memory selection: Without faith it is impossible to please Him. For whoever would draw near to God must believe that He exists and that He rewards those who seek Him. Hebrews II:6.

It is necessary to acquire a sense of God's reality in order to know about Him. To be able to say with the Psalmist, "O God, Thou art my God" is the aim of every true believer. This certainty of God in our lives comes only from personal communion with Him. Robert Louis Stevenson said that a man could not make a success of his life until he wrote at the top of his daily journal, "Enter, God." First comes belief in God, as we studied in last week's lesson, then a deep consciousness of His love and power.

History of Text—Isaiah

The first passage is taken from the 40th chapter of Isaiah. Scholars agree that the Book of Isaiah is really a combination of two books. The first 39 chapters were written by Isaiah, prophet-statesman of Judah who lived in the eighth century B. C. when Assyria was the great and threatening world power. He was called the Messianic Prophet because he foretold the coming of Jesus Christ, a wonderful blessing from God to all nations. This Wonderful Child was to be called "Emmanuel" which means "God is with us," and He would save the Jewish nation.

The 40th to 55th chapters of Isaiah are a second section written by a Second Isaiah, an unknown prophet-poet of the Exile

U. S. Faces Critical Decisions at Home and Abroad in '48

BY NEWS SPECIALISTS OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A CRITICAL YEAR promising momentous events is the prospect for 1948.

Rough going is in prospect diplomatically, economically and politically. But the outlook is bright in science.

More food, but more shortages, higher prices, but possibly less labor trouble are among the paradoxes on the horizon.

This will be a presidential election year and that factor is being felt at home and abroad.

Here is the likely shape of things to come.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS:

New Crisis Abroad, But War Unlikely

IN THE field of international affairs, 1948 seems destined to be one of history's crucial years, although not likely to produce a general war.

There may be a lull in Russia's propaganda during the U. S. election campaign to avoid the possibility that the ensuing administration might go into office in an atmosphere suggesting a popular mandate for a continued "tough" policy toward Communism.

But the Communist fight to sabotage the European Recovery Program will continue.

Vital decisions regarding the future of Germany can be expected. The probabilities are for no formal "separate peace."

The United States will become more involved in the business of bolstering other countries against the Communists. A full-fledged program for China is in the cards.

China, wary of what might happen if she aggravates Russia into supplying more help to Communist rebels, probably will continue to block a formal Japanese peace conference without Russian participation. Russia, standing to gain little or nothing from a treaty, will stick to her demand that it be handled by the foreign ministers.

The U. N. "Little Assembly" may get around the Russian boycott by calling special sessions of the General Assembly.

Jewish emigration to Palestine probably will have serious repercussions.

The winter will further strain the socialist government in Britain, and a coalition substitute or return of the Conservatives to power is not out of the question.

POLITICS:

Hot Fight Seen For Presidency

ABOUT the only political forecasts that can be made with virtual certainty seven months before the presidential nominating conventions are:

1. The Republicans have a horse race on their hands with no less than six candidates, each with possibilities of jockeying for position.

2. President Truman has the Democratic nomination if he wants it.

3. It's not going to be any walk-away.

Republicans were saying right after their sweep in the 1946 congressional elections that they could win with almost anybody in 1948. They've changed their tune.

Not necessarily in order of strength, the six GOP prospects at Philadelphia will be: Dewey, Taft, Stassen, Warren, Eisenhower and MacArthur.

Dewey, 1944 standard bearer and unannounced as to 1948, is beginning to speak out on some important issues. Taft, Stassen and Warren are avowed candidates. Eisenhower and MacArthur may be classed as receptive.

Prices will still be sufficiently high to be the big issue. Whom the voters will blame is debatable. Money in the pocket usually helps the party holding the White House. Money in the pocket, but with many necessities of life nearly out of reach of the average man, may mean another year of depression.

If the Republicans win the presidency next year they no doubt would keep control of the Senate and House. It's more of a question whether the Democrats could regain Congress while keeping the White House.

FOOTCAST FOR '48

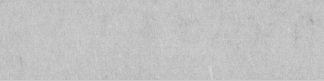

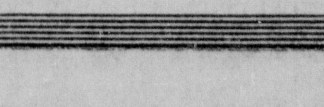

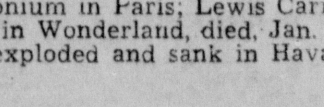

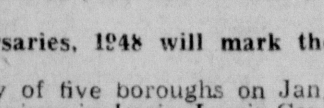

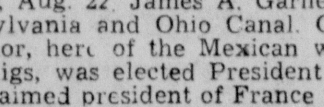

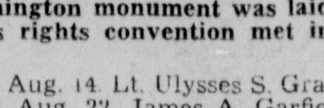

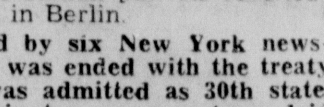

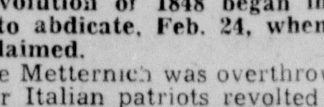

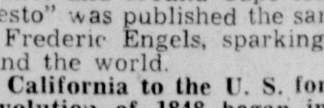

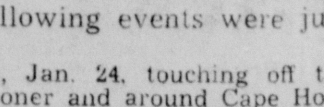

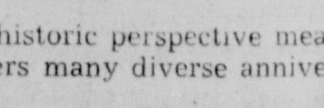

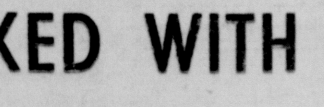

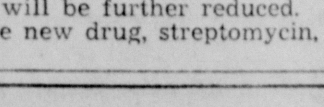

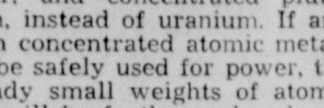

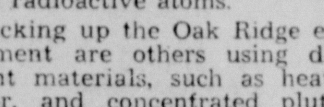

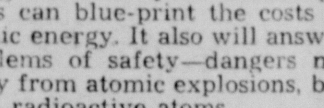

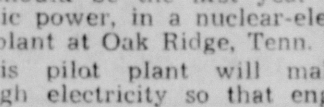

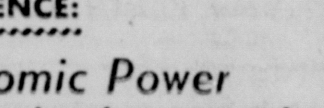

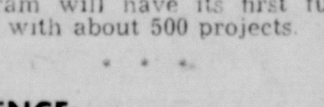

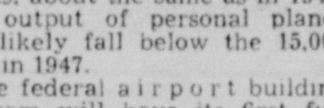

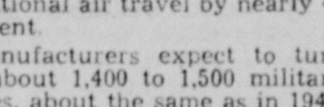

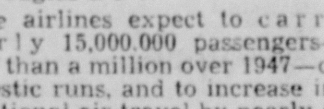

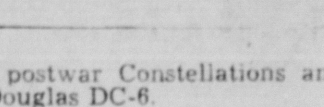

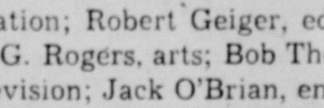

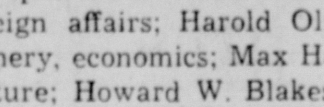

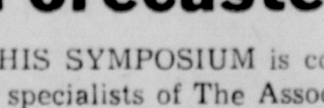

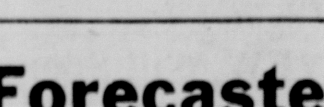

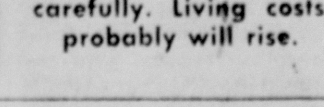

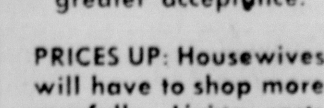

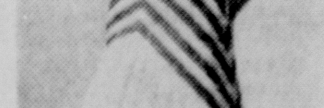

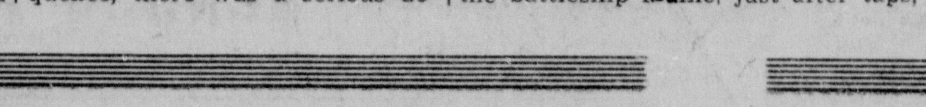

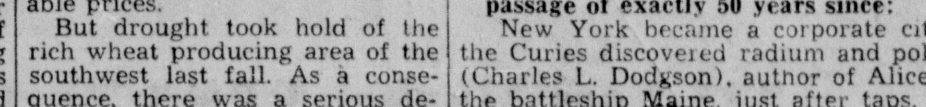

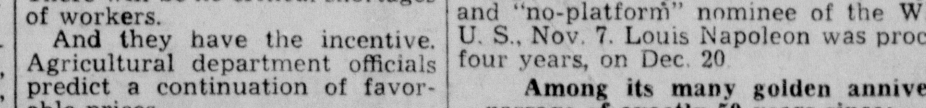

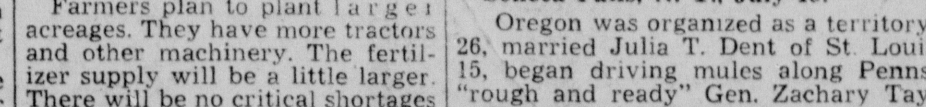

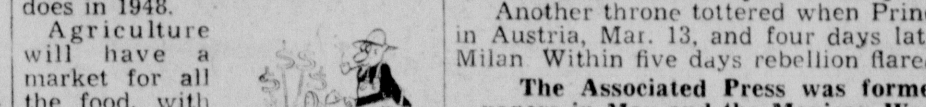

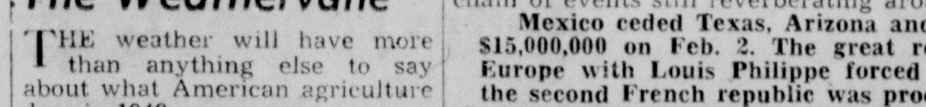

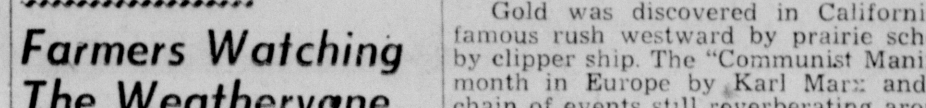

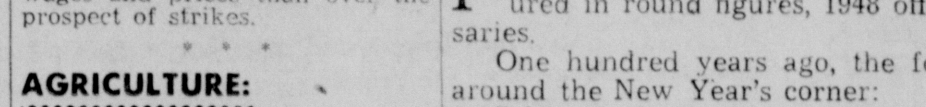

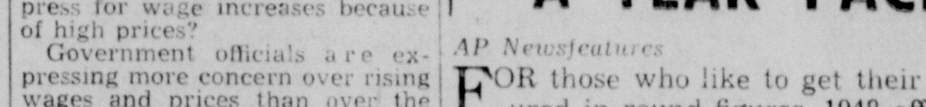

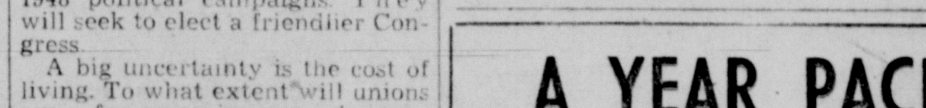

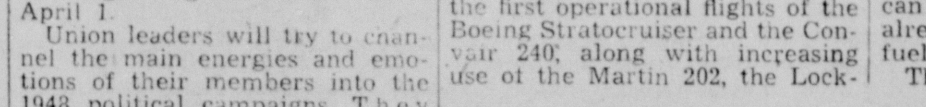

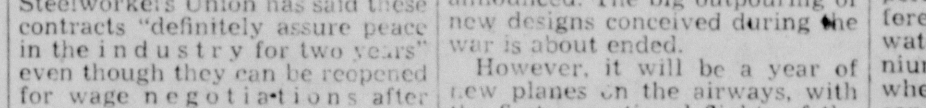

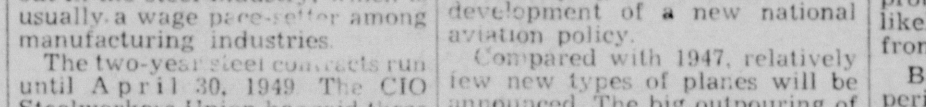

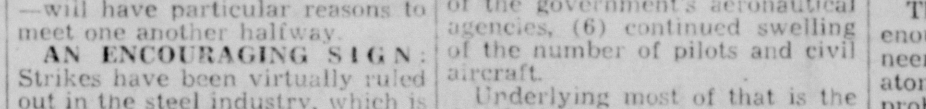

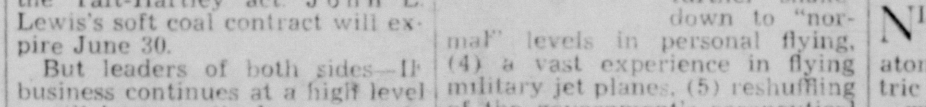

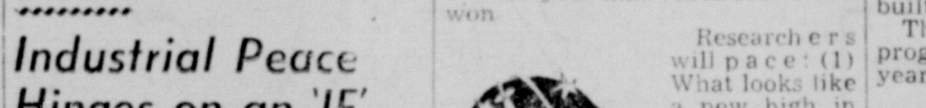

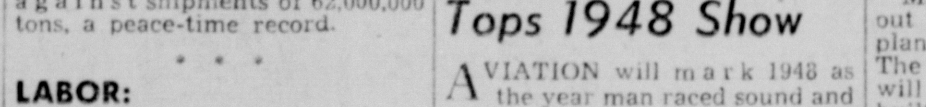

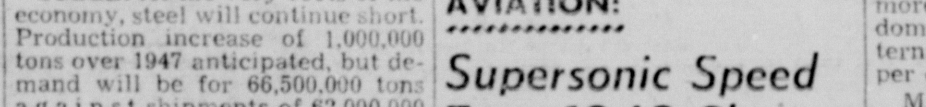

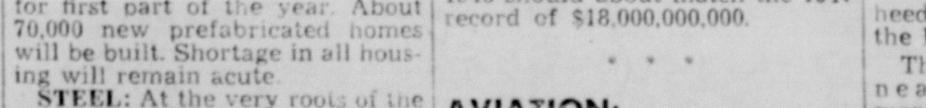

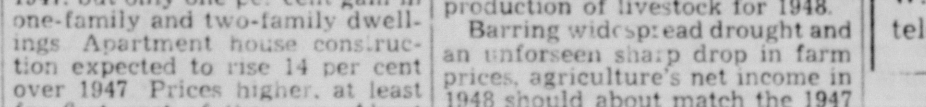

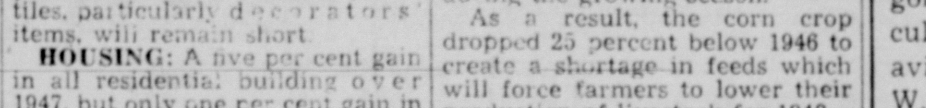

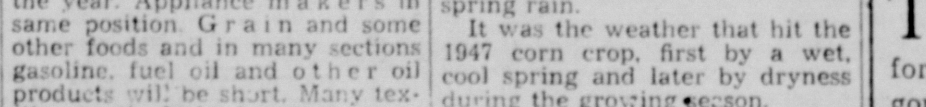

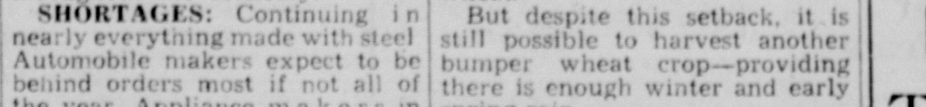

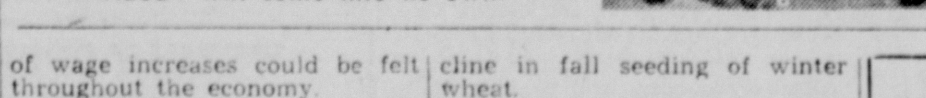

TRUMAN RENOMINATED: The President can run again if he wants. But he will have a hot election fight.

NEW LOOK OLD: The long style will win greater acceptance.

TELEVISION BOOM: In the new year "video" will come into its own.

STRIFE ABROAD: Europe's left-right fight will go on. War is unlikely.

JOE LOUIS KO'D? The champion, growing old, may be upset. Photo shows him floored by Galento in '39.

BUMPER CROP YEAR: Farmers again will find markets for everything they can plant.

WOMEN: Career Girl Bows To Femininity

WOMEN achieved the "new look" in 1947 (no, without a struggle) and now are prepared to make the most of their new elegance in the first Leap Year since the war.

The outlook for 1948 on the distant side seems to be an accent on femininity, not only in clothes but in manners. The days of the strict "enfranchised woman" as well as the comradely and efficient career girl of war years are passing. Women will do just as earnest and important work in 1948, but they will make less noise about it.

Having won their place in the fields once open only to men, women no longer have to fight so bitterly to protect their rights. They can relax.

The college girls who will be graduated in 1948 are less worried about women's rights and will go into practically all the professions.

Women have their serious interests for 1948. They are determined to help avert another war if that is possible. They do not want to send their husbands, sons and sweethearts into an atomic war.

Women's interests for 1948 are as wide as the world, but their hearts are safe at home.

TELEVISION: Prices May Ease In 'Video' Boom

TELEVISION could very well look upon 1948 as its first "boom year." The past year saw stations springing up in new cities and manufacturers getting receivers on the market in impressive numbers.

A nationwide television network is taking shape, with indications that the middle west may be added by New Year's 1948.

Increased production and competition are expected to have somewhat of a leveling effect on prices of receivers now ranging from around $200 to $2,400.

The number of stations grew from eight to 18 in 1947 and may see 20 added by mid-year. A total of 53 others have construction permits, with 43 in addition having license applications on file.

St. Louis, Detroit, Baltimore, Milwaukee and Cincinnati have been added to the television pioneers of New York, Schenectady, Philadelphia, Chicago and Los Angeles.

With probably 200,000 receivers now being tuned in, upwards of a million more are forecast for 1948.

ENTERTAINMENT: Deflation Booked For Broadway Run

THE Theater has slumped down its activity from the careless, inflated conditions of the war years, when it was literally easy to get money to back the worst dramatic stinkers.

Despite a tighter economy, the theater is better artistically, with more admirable shows on the Broadway boards than in many a year.

The future is shiny and encouraging, with almost all the fine playwrights, even those who had fled to the cash-green forests of Hollywood, reading new scripts.

Night club business will continue generally to be "brutal," which is the trade term for a night club slump. Waiters are snow blind from looking at unbroken expanses of white tablecloths.

Restaurant business will continue its gaily inflated jog so long as food shortages continue, high profits keep falling into playful pockets and spirits remain high. One successful New York operator is opening a new steak house for the "medium priced" trade because there "isn't a place on Broadway where you can get a $2.50 steak."

Broadway movie mosques already have felt public resentment against high movie house admissions, in one instance promptly lowering a $2.80 tariff for a single movie when patrons stayed away.

The incredible amounts paid to stage stars (as high as $4,000 a week to Frank Sinatra and Danny Kaye), have been adjusted sharply. Night club salaries, which hit their height with $10,000 a week to Milton Berle, have tilted back toward $5,000 to $7,500 a week if your name is big.

The war is over, and so is the gleeful Broadway party.

THE MOVIES: Gals, Gags, Gats To Cut Film Costs

HOLLYWOOD faces another perilous year in 1948.

In 1947, the U. S. motion picture industry grappled with its most difficult problems since the advent of sound movies.

A "shopping" film audience made producers re-evaluate their programming. Rising costs brought new terrors to the film makers.

The crushing blow came when the British slapped a 75 per cent tax on American films and other foreign countries followed suit with similar restrictions.

Unless there are diplomatic developments, film companies will have to depend on the American market for their profits. This means that expensive flops will have to be avoided. In fact, the traditional multi-million-dollar epic will become a scarce commodity. The cost of the year will be for wisely planned, tightly-filmed money makers.

The coming year will find studios searching desperately for solutions to these problems. Personnel cut-backs will probably continue. New methods will have to be found for cutting costs.

The cost of the year will be for wisely planned, tightly-filmed money makers.

The screen menu for 1948 will reflect the producers' belief that the public wants "entertainment." This means a fare of gals, gags and gats.

SPORTS: Baseball Crowds May Hit New Peak

THE sports picture of 1948 looks bright.

There is a possibility that the major baseball leagues may draw 20,000,000 fans for the first time. However, some minor leagues may fold.

The Boston Red Sox, disappointing favorites to retain the American League championship last season, are expected to bound back. In the National League the Brooklyn Dodgers will be favorites to repeat for the World Series.

Like the Red Sox.

In view of Jersey Joe Walcott's surprise showing against heavyweight boxing champion Joe Louis, many contenders will challenge the champion. Louis appears ready to be taken. He may get by Walcott in a return fight but it is questionable whether he can beat Gus Lesnevich, light heavyweight champion. Lesnevich hits harder than Walcott, is a better boxer, and Louis has shown that he is vulnerable to a right to the jaw.

Force racing figures to show a slight decline in attendance and wagering. But both Armed and Stymie are likely to move their earnings above the million dollar mark. The Kentucky Derby appears to be at the mercy of Calumet Farm's Citation, a Bull Lea colt.

In football Notre Dame again will be the team to beat. In the topsy-turvy professional ranks, the National Football League and the All-America Conference will continue to remain at odds with both the Brooklyn Dodgers and Chicago Rockets of the conference either disbanding or moving their franchises to other cities.

Timmy Dement and Ben Hogan should head America's touring golfers.

America is expected to carry off honors in the seventh Winter Olympic Games at St. Moritz, Switzerland, Jan. 30 through Feb. 8 and also in the fourteenth Olympiad July 29-Aug. 14 in London.

American tennis will lose a lot of prestige including the Davis Cup now that Jack Kramer has turned professional. The national championship may go to Frank Parker or Ted Schroeder.

heed postwar Constellations and the Douglas DC-6.

The airlines expect to carry nearly 15,000,000 passengers—more than a million over 1947—on domestic runs, and to increase international air travel by nearly 40 per cent.

Manufacturers expect to turn out about 1,400 to 1,500 military planes, about the same as in 1947. The output of personal planes will likely fall below the 15,000 built in 1947.

The federal airport building program will have its first full year, with about 500 projects.

SCIENCE:

Atomic Power Leads the Parade

NINETEEN-FORTY-EIGHT should be the first year of atomic power, in a nuclear-electric plant at Oak Ridge, Tenn.

This pilot plant will make enough electricity so that engineers can blue-print the costs of atomic energy. It also will answer problems of safety—dangers not likely from atomic explosions, but from radioactive atoms.

Backing up the Oak Ridge experiment are others using different materials, such as heavy water, and concentrated plutonium, instead of uranium. If and when concentrated atomic metals can be safely used for power, the already small weights of atomic fuel will be further reduced.

The new drug, streptomycin, is likely to become important in treating tuberculosis of the lungs. No one looks for streptomycin to be a cure, but the new drug has demonstrated an ability to cause temporary improvement.

Cancer will see more drugs tried out than ever before, although no drug has yet been discovered that has more than temporary good effects.

Chemistry expects the industrialization of the new fluorocarbon. This is a combination of fluorine and carbon, in which the fluorine replaces hydrogen. It makes an oil safer and tougher than any hydrocarbon. These oils will stand more heat and more pressure and may permit machines to run at higher speeds and temperatures.

THE ARTS:

Creative Hopes Spring Eternal

WILL 1948 give us at last the great American novel? Will we hear the symphony we've waited for all our lives, or the soprano with the voice of our dreams, and face and figure to match? Will some artist paint the incomparable masterpiece?

The answer to these questions will probably be no, as it has been for other years.

Critics will continue to hope, however. Publishers, impresarios and gallery directors will be hopeful, too. Masterpieces mean money in their pockets. They did

A YEAR PACKED WITH FAMOUS ANNIVERSARIES

AP Newsfeatures

FOR those who like to get their historic perspective measured in round figures, 1948 offers many diverse anniversaries.

One hundred years ago, the following events were just around the New Year's corner:

Gold was discovered in California, Jan. 24, touching off the famous rush westward by prairie schooner and around Cape Horn by clipper ship. The "Communist Manifesto" was published the same year in Europe by Karl Marx and Frederick Engels, sparking a chain of events still reverberating around the world.

Mexico ceded Texas, Arizona and California to the U. S. for $15,000,000 on Feb. 2. The great revolution of 1848 began in Europe with Louis Philippe forced to abdicate, Feb. 24, when the second French republic was proclaimed.

Another throne tottered when Prince Metternich was overthrown in Austria, Mar. 13, and four days later Italian patriots revolted in Milan. Within five days rebellion flared in Berlin.

The Associated Press was formed by six New York newspapers in May and the Mexican War was ended with the treaty of Guadalupe, May 19. Wisconsin was admitted as 30th state, May 23. The cornerstone of the Washington monument was laid July 4. The first American woman's rights convention met in Seneca Falls, N. Y., July 19.

Oregon was organized as a territory, Aug. 14. Lt. Ulysses S. Grant, 26, married Julia T. Dent of St. Louis, Aug. 22. James A. Garfield, 15, began driving mules along Pennsylvania and Ohio Canal. Old "rough and ready" Gen. Zachary Taylor, hero of the Mexican war and "no-platform" nominee of the Whigs, was elected President of U. S., Nov. 7. Louis Napoleon was proclaimed president of France for four years, on Dec. 20.

Among its many golden anniversaries, 1948 will mark the passage of exactly 50 years since:

New York became a corporate city of five boroughs on Jan. 1. The Curies discovered radium and polonium in Paris; Lewis Carroll (Charles L. Dodgson), author of Alice in Wonderland, died, Jan. 14; the battleship Maine, just after taps, exploded and sank in Havana harbor, Feb. 15. Emile Zola was condemned to jail Feb. 23 by the French for reviving the Dreyfus case with "J

VETERAN NAVY MATMEN READY FOR BULLETS

Annapolis, Md., Jan. 9 (P)—Coach Ray Swartz gets the first test of his Olympic wrestling hopes tomorrow when his experienced Navy grapplers open the season with a worthy Gettysburg college mat squad.

The Navy grab and hold boys haven't their shoulders pinned in a dual meet for five and a half years, and there's no apparent reason to believe they should be less effective this season. In marking up 38 consecutive wins the Swartz wrestlers have copied four intercollegiate titles and 19 individual championships, which is the basis for glances at possible Olympic berths.

From a squad which was knocked off its Eastern Intercollegiate perch by four points by Lehigh last year, Coach Swartz has enough left open to put a letter winner in every weight division. And two of them are intercollegiate champs.

Gettysburg will pit a tested squad, which has defeated Lafayette and Johns Hopkins already this year, against the Navy matmen. Leading the invaders is Russ Riegel of Washington, N. J., voted the outstanding competitor in the Middle Atlantic last year.

Riegel will have his work cut out for him. He'll be trading grips with Navy Captain John Fletcher, the defending 145-pound Eastern Intercollegiate champ. Fletcher himself got the "outstanding" vote at last year's Eastern championships.

Navy's other champ is Wayne Smith, who copped the 136-pound toga in his plebe year. His opponent is expected to be Joe Erb of Hanover.

Lehigh Foe Of Bullets Tonight

Lehigh university's cage team will be seeking to rebound from the crushing 80-36 handed it by Muhlenberg Wednesday evening when it tangles with the Gettysburg college Bullets on the local floor this evening at 8 o'clock.

There will be no preliminary game.

The Engineers hold a 47-44 victory over Bucknell, conquerors of Penn State, and are certain to be a much better team than the crushing upset handed them by the powerful Mules indicates.

Coach Dan Yarbrough has four lettermen on his team including Bob Collins and Karl Rehner, forwards; Ted Marantz and Johnny Petrone, guards.

The stock of the Bullets rose considerably following their smashing victory over the highly-regarded Dickinson quintet here on Wednesday. Coach "Jen" Bream's outfit demonstrated its power in convincing style and repeat performances are certain to bring more victories.

ROSY PICTURE IS DRAWN FOR PRO FOOTBALL

By LEE LINDER

Philadelphia, Jan. 9 (P)—The National Football league, with the greatest season in history just weeks over, is looking forward to bigger and better gridiron feats in 1948 to lure the cash customers.

"It will take plenty of doing to top the '47 campaign," said NFL Commissioner Bert Bell, "but watch us."

The portly, graying former coach leaned back in his swivel chair.

"We play strictly for spectator appeal," observed Bell, who's starting his third year as NFL boss and overseer.

Paid admission figures are not yet compiled but Bell estimates that 2,500,000 made the turnstiles click during the 60-game season and the dozen-odd extra-curricular contests. The Annie Oakleys are extra.

Expect More Customers

"Attendance should be even greater this season; possibly by a quarter of a million customers," Bell prophesied.

"Competition will be closer than ever," the commissioner declared. "The real thing is spectator interest—the thing that means big crowds—is a close race. All 10 clubs have championship hopes for 1948."

The NFL ended its 47 season on December 28 with the Chicago Cardinals defeating the Philadelphia Eagles for the title. The Eagles had knocked off the Pittsburgh Steelers in a special game to reach the championship bracket. During the campaign 11 records were broken.

"I really believe the '48 season will be greater," Bell mused. "It stands to reason that Washington, New York and the Chicago Bears won't stay out of the championship race."

Strong Contenders

"Green Bay and the Los Angeles Rams will be strong contenders. Why Green Bay lost four games last season by only nine points—that's proof of the evenness of our clubs."

"Detroit will be greatly improved. Its rookies have a season of play under their belts and Bill Dudley, hampered by injuries, is expected to have a great year."

"The Boston Yanks may surprise everybody. They finished the season with a bang and held victories over the Eagles, Redskins and Rams. They've already signed Georgia's great tackle, Bob Davis, and are reported getting contract signatures of several other topflight youngsters."

Joe Page Signs For 1948 With Yankees

New York, Jan. 9 (P)—Joe Page, age relief hurler of the New York Yankees, is the latest of the world champion key performers to agree to 1948 contract terms.

The 30-year-old Springdale, Pa., lefthander, who won 14 and lost eight games last year as he appeared in 56 contests, signed his contract yesterday. He won the final world series game from Brooklyn.

The Yankees did not announce the terms, but New York sports writers estimated Page got $20,000 an $8,000 boost.

Joe DiMaggio, Tommy Henrich and George Stinnett all have signed contracts within the past week.

30 FARM TEAMS WILL COMPETE AT HARRISBURG

Harrisburg, Jan. 9 (P)—Thirty of Pennsylvania's mightiest farm teams will compete in the state championship horse pulling contest at the Pennsylvania Farm Show, opening here Monday.

The contest, a top favorite among Farm Show visitors, will be held Wednesday night, January 14, in the spacious main arena, with the entry list the largest in Farm Show history.

Kuhns Brothers, of New Bethlehem, Armstrong county, whose lightweight team won that division of the 1947 contest, have entered teams in both the light and heavy-weight classes this year. The Farm Show commission announced. Heavy division winner last year, E. O. Galbraith also of New Bethlehem, has not entered a team this year.

10 Champs Out

The commission said the competing teams will be hitched to a machine called a dynamometer which registers the weight of the load pulled. The heavy-weight team last year pulled the equivalent of 214 tons a distance of 26 feet, 1 inch.

Another headline feature of the five-day agricultural exposition—the state horseshoe pitching championship—already has an entry list boasting no less than 10 county champions.

Four times state champion, John E. Fulton, of Carlisle, and 1947 winner, is not entered this year as contest rules prohibit entry of a champion while he holds the title. Fulton won his first title in 1936 at the age of 21 and repeated in 1938 and 1940.

A top favorite among the entry list this year is Rudolph Bourret, of Ruffsdale, Westmoreland county, who was runner-up in 1947. The contest is scheduled for Thursday night.

U.S. TRANSFERS 4 SUBMARINES TO TURK NAVY

Washington, Jan. 9 (P)—The United States is transferring to Turkey four fleet-type submarines and Navy crews will deliver them to a port of this Eastern Mediterranean nation.

The submarines are among 15 navy vessels of various types which the Navy announced today are being transferred under the $100,000,000 Turkish aid program voted by the last session of Congress.

The announcement came at a time that 1,000 Marines are en route to strengthen crews aboard U. S. warships in the Mediterranean. Some of these ships are in waters about Greece where guerrilla warfare marks the conflict between the Communism stemming from Soviet Russia and her Eastern satellites, and Western Europe and the United States.

First Mention of Subs

Russia, Turkey's huge neighbor, has repeatedly been reported by Navy officials here to possess one of today's largest submarine fleets.

While the transfer to Turkey of torpedo boats and minesweepers had been contemplated since the start of the Turkish aid program, there had been no previous official mention of submarines.

The Navy said Greece also has received six motor gun boats under the $300,000,000 Greek aid program. They were delivered to Greek crews at Norfolk, Va., during November.

In addition to the submarines, the Navy said Turkey will have received at U. S. ports by next April one gasoline tanker, one repair vessel, eight motor mine sweepers, and one net laying vessel.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Jan. 9 (P)—Although the people involved on both sides try to give the impression that there won't be much difference of opinion shown when the NCAA "sanitary" code comes up for discussion tomorrow, you get the impression around the meetings here that it wouldn't take much to set off a heck of an argument. . . . One thing for sure is that the southeastern conference voted 9-2 to tell the national body to go climb a tree and then "reconsidered" at the urging of a few important members when it was learned that the southern and southwest conferences wouldn't string along with the rebellion. . . . The fuss still shapes up as a fight between the southern schools and the big nine—if you listen to the way they talk informally—but the southerners figure that the small colleges, particularly in the East, who aren't much concerned with the whole affair, have enough votes to swing the decision.

SPORTS BEFORE YOUR EYES

Mike Peppe, Ohio State swimming coach, has been voted the man of the year by the Columbus, Ohio, sports council and will be honored at a dinner next week. . . . The N.C.A.A. boxing tournament will be conducted on the Olympic weight scale, instead of the usual 125-pounds and up, because it is a qualifying event for the Olympic trials. Some dual meets on the west coast, where they still have 112-pounders, already are being run on this basis but the east will stick to the old rule because of minimum requirements at the service schools. . . . Virginia claims to have two of the most sought-after high school football backs, Billy Ferris of Woodrow Wilson high, Portsmouth, and Ted Piler of Richmond's John Marshall, who have had bids from at least 20 colleges. But that still seems like a big order judging from the number of phone calls from coaches here to various spots in New Jersey.

DOTS ALL, BROTHERS

Maybe Bob Higgins won't admit it, but the reason Penn State was throwing passes all over the field in a desperate effort to break that 13-13 tie with Southern Methodist in the last few minutes of the Cotton Bowl game was that Coach Higgins thought SMU had a 14-13 lead. . . . "If Hig had known it was a tie," says our informant, "he would have been out there lying on the ball himself." . . . And North Carolina State folks indignantly deny that basketball Coach Ev Case had the hot and cold water faucets removed from his house because the letters, H.C., reminded him of Holy Cross and that Sugar Bowl game.

Decision Soon On Navy Coach Policy

Annapolis, Md., Jan. 9 (P)—Navy football fans will probably know within a week whether the academy will maintain its policy of using naval officers as coaches for three terms, or whether the tradition will be jettisoned in favor of hiring a civilian.

A naval spokesman said eight former star athletes were reviewing Annapolis athletics, and would turn in a report shortly. While it is unlikely that the report itself will be made public, Rear Admiral James L. Holloway, the academy superintendent, is expected to issue a statement in connection with it.

The statement could also clarify the status of Capt. Tom Hamilton, the present coach, whose tour has one more year to run.

Bishop said yesterday that a number of applications have been received for the position left vacant by the recent resignation of Charles E. Soleau to enter private business.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 9 (P)—The 1948 pony baseball league will be opened by the Hamilton, Ont., club and the Batavia Clippers. League President Bob Stedler said yesterday that league members have agreed on a 126-game schedule for next season, starting May 2. However, because baseball is prohibited in Hamilton, the Ontario club was given permission to entertain the Clippers one day earlier.

Morgan said last night Kodish was suspended for an indefinite period because he played with the Plymouth team in the Penn State pro league in violation of an Eastern league rule.

Swedish Swatter To Be Watched Tonight

New York, Jan. 9 (P)—How good is Ole Tandberg?

That's the subject up for discussion tonight at Madison Square Garden when the tall, blond Swede from Stockholm, who upset Joe Baksi last July, meets the Cleveland "Cutie," Joe Maxim in his American pro debut.

The 10-round heavyweight scrap has been lost in the shuffle while the Twentieth Century Sporting club has been busy signing Joe Louis on the dotted line for a defense of his heavyweight title next June.

But there has been enough talk about the Swedish swatter to lure about 12,000 customers and an expected gate of $60,000 to the Eighth avenue arena.

Of Ole can prove that his decision over Baksi was no fluke, he

PRINCESS ANNE ON WAY TO JOIN EX-KING MIHAI

Copenhagen, Jan. 9 (AP)—Bare-headed and smiling, Princess Anne of Bourbon-Parma boarded a train for Switzerland today to meet former King Mihai of Romania and complete plans for their wedding.

The blonde princess departed aboard a regularly scheduled train and with complete absence of ceremony.

Railway officials had opened the royal waiting room for her, but she disdained its use. Smilingly her father, Prince Rene, told bewildered station officials:

"Don't worry about us. We're just ordinary people, anyway."

Princess Anne was accompanied on the trip by her mother, Princess Margrethe.

"I'm So Happy"

There were tears in Anne's eyes as she said goodbye to her father, but she obviously was in high spirits.

Just before the train pulled out she leaned from an open window and told newsmen:

"I'm so happy and I'm looking forward so much to seeing Mihai again. That's all I can say at present."

Yesterday Princess Margrethe was quoted by the newspaper Berlingske Tidende as saying that Anne and Mihai might go to the United States "immediately after" their wedding.

"We do not live in the medieval any more," she said. "They are modern young people and they might want to settle in America."

ARMY SURPLUS EXPLOSIVES ARE FOUND ON FARM

Asbury Park, N. J., Jan. 9 (AP)—More than 50 tons of surplus Army explosives, seized yesterday in a raid on a nearby farm and found in a truck parked in the business district here, were under state police and U. S. Marine guard today.

Nine men were being held by state police and Monmouth county detectives.

New Jersey state police said an eight-state alarm was out for two more trucks believed headed here from Seneca government war surplus depot at Romulus, N. Y., carrying the same type loads.

Monmouth county prosecutor J. Victor Carlton said he was "fairly certain" that more than 40 tons of explosives found yesterday on a farm in Wall township, five miles from here, "tied up with" 65,000 pounds of TNT found in 77 crates seized Saturday on a Jersey City pier.

Truck Is Sealed

The sealed truck, found by police late last night, parked near a warehouse on an Asbury Park street, also arrived from the upstate New York war surplus depot, Carlton said. Police said the truck would not be unloaded until later today, but its load would boost the total of explosives over the 50-ton mark.

The truck, Carlton said, was found near a warehouse owned by Charles Lowy, of Asbury Park, who he said also owned the farm. Lowy, arraigned last night before Justice of the Peace Fred Quinn of Freehold, pleaded innocent to a charge of storing explosives without a permit and was held in $5,000 bail pending grand jury action.

Lowy's bail was increased to $15,000 after the seizure of the truck in Asbury Park, Carlton said.

Carlton said the farm was raided after an anonymous tip was received by state police that trucks were unloading in the area of the farm.

Carlton identified another of the men arrested as Harry R. Sessions, 29, of North Stockholm, N. Y., driver of a truck which was being unloaded of explosives when police arrived at the farm. Sessions was held in $2,500 bail on a charge of transporting explosives without a permit, when arraigned before Quinn.

Disdain Knowledge

Carlton quoted Lowy as saying he had no knowledge of what the material was when he contracted to store it. Lowy told Carlton he had been approached in Asbury Park by a man who asked him if he would store some material, and he said he would.

Carlton said Sessions claimed he had no knowledge of what his load was. Sessions said he had relieved another driver in Mahwah, where he was told to take the truck to Asbury Park, and on his arrival there to call the Genesee Trucking company (no address available) and ask for instructions.

Sessions said the trucking company told him to go to the Lowy farm in Asbury Park and from there he was taken to the farm.

The crates of explosives, Carlton said, made a pile eight feet long, 10 feet high and 30 feet across.

RAISE COAL ESTIMATES

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—The National Coal Association today revised its estimate of 1947 bituminous production upward to 619,000,000 tons, raising the possibility that final figures will fall only slightly short of an all-time annual record.

4 Socialites On Adventure Jaunt

Cape May, N. J., Jan. 9 (AP)—Four socialites who want to "try something new" were preparing today to set sail in a 72-foot auxiliary yawl for the Caribbean in search of adventure, excitement and business. They will sail tomorrow, weather permitting.

The Marconi-rigged craft "Comanche" is skippered by its owner, 28-year-old Ted Dale, son of socially prominent Mrs. Pauline Dale, of Bryn Mawr, Pa.

The crew includes Alan Pope, 30, of Hotel Westbury, New York, son of Bayard Pope, chairman of the board of directors of the Marine Trust company, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Reynolds, of Warwick East, Bermuda. All of the men are former servicemen.

The "Comanche" has one charter trip out of St. Thomas, and others are in prospect. The yawl will take pleasure parties to the Antilles and the money will be used for the search for excitement and business.

The ship will be operated on shares, with Dale receiving the largest profit as owner. Dale will navigate. He entered the navy directly from the University of Pennsylvania.

No snake has eyelids or external openings for its ears.

Congress Urged To Forget Party Politics In European Recovery Plan Support

TOP MEN FROM BOTH PARTIES JOIN IN STAND

By JACK BELL

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—A Republican and a Democrat urged today that Congress put party differences aside and join in support of a European recovery program.

Senator Hatch (NM), the Democrat, carried his proposal further with an appeal for joint action on legislation to curb inflation.

Senator Smith (NJ), Hatch's Republican colleague on the Senate Foreign Relations committee, called for a "non-political" settlement of the administration-GOP argument over who shall operate the Marshall plan for European recovery.

Urges Compromise

With Secretary of State Marshall standing firm on the contention that he must control vital policy decisions, Smith told a reporter he thinks a compromise is imperative with House Republicans who want a separate government corporation set up to administer the foreign aid program.

"But it must be a compromise without politics in it," the New Jersey Senator declared. Smith earlier had urged Congress to avoid "political implications" and make the assistance program an "All-American plan."

In a speech prepared for Senate delivery, Hatch proposed that the Republican and Democratic policy committees be invited to sit with the Foreign Relations Committee to consider President Truman's proposal or a 51-month program of economic aid for Europe expected to cost $6,800,000,000 in the first 15 months.

Disaster Is Alternative

"If party politics guides or directs any of us in these critical days of destiny," Hatch declared, "Only disaster can or will result."

"The people do not want a Republican European recovery program. With equal vigor, I assert the country does not want a Democratic European recovery program. What the country wants and what the people are demanding is a united American program."

Hatch praised Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich.) of the Foreign Relations Committee for what he described as the Michigan senator's example of a "non-political" and non-partisan approach to these world wide issues.

In this role Vandenberg appealed to Marshall for help in solving what he said may be the "greatest controversy" facing Congress over the Foreign Aid Program—how it is to be operated.

Racial Problem Found Spreading

Buck Hill Falls, Pa., Jan. 8 (AP)—

"The same rigid pattern of racial discrimination found in the south threatens to develop" in the northern and western sections of the country, says Dr. Harry V. Richardson, of Tuskegee, Ala.

Doctor Richardson, director of rural training for the Home Missions Council of North America, yesterday urged 200 church leaders here for the council's annual conference to "take a more positive lead in helping the negro to find security."

Declaring that he feels the church's progress in attacking the racial problem has been encouraging, he said:

"The fact that last week two negroes on a Pennsylvania team played football against a southern school in Dallas, Texas, is enough to make us stand and rejoice." His reference was to the Penn State-Southern Methodist Cotton Bowl game.

BILLY IN DARK

Philadelphia, Jan. 9 (AP)—Billy Penn will be in the dark again—at night, that is, but only for the duration of the oil shortage. The massive statue atop Philadelphia's City Hall has been illuminated by floodlights but Mayor Bernard Samuel ordered the blackout in order to save 300 gallons of oil each night.

PENNA. BACKERS OF STASSEN BID FOR STATE VOTE

Harrisburg, Jan. 9 (AP)—Pennsylvania backers of Harold E. Stassen for President announced plans for a vigorous bid for Keystone state Republican support following a personal appearance of the candidate here.

Col. Jay Cooke, said yesterday state headquarters will be opened in Philadelphia Tuesday, January 13. Stassen, who conferred for a half hour yesterday with Gov. James H. Duff, the man expected to head Pennsylvania's delegation of 73 in the GOP national convention, said he was "very much encouraged" by his chat with the Governor and a luncheon with state and county leaders which followed.

The luncheon was arranged by Cooke to allow Pennsylvania Republican leaders to meet the 40-year-old Minnesota and more than a 100 city state and local party officials tended.

Probably "Key" State Stassen said he "very frankly" considered Pennsylvania a key state in the race for the Republican Presidential nomination which he asserted was "still wide open."

Asserting Pennsylvania's will "probably be the key delegation" in the GOP national convention, he said "naturally I would hope to have its support," but added he realized it was "too early" for any Pennsylvania commitments and that "Pennsylvania has an outstanding leader in U. S. Sen. Edward Martin x x x who also counts."

Martin has been mentioned repeatedly as Pennsylvania's "favorite son" candidate although Duff has consistently refused to discuss any individual names in connection with the nomination, declaring and decision should be left to convention time.

In addition to Duff, key Republican leaders at the Stassen luncheon yesterday were state Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, Republican State Chairman, G. Mason Owicki, Pennsylvania National Committeeman, and Mrs. Worthington Scranton, National Committeewoman.

MICHELSON DIES IN WASHINGTON

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—Charles Michelson, 79, newspaperman and former publicity director of the Democratic National Committee, died Thursday.

He had been ill and confined for months to his apartment where he died.

Michelson, veteran political writer, took over as Democratic press agent in 1929 and held the post for 13 years. In 1940 he promoted a third term for Franklin D. Roosevelt — first ever given a President.

Michelson had been chief Washington correspondent for the New York World for 12 years before taking the party job — which eventually paid him $25,000 a year.

A native of Virginia City, Nev., he started his newspaper career as a $7 a week reporter on the San Francisco Post. He worked on several west coast and New York papers.

He died at 7:45 a. m. after awakening and asking a nurse to bring him a cup of coffee.

Tim Leads Police To Stolen Goods

Philadelphia, Jan. 9 (AP)—Last Wednesday night a motion picture projector, screen and five rolls of film used in promoting the March of Dimes infantile paralysis campaign were stolen from an automobile in Philadelphia.

The story of the theft in Philadelphia newspapers apparently reached the attention of the thief. Last night police in suburban Upper Darby received an anonymous telephone call that the missing film, projector and screen could be found behind an Upper Darby super market. Police took a look and found them there.

Indians living near the Catskill Mountains before the coming of the white man believed them to be the dwelling place of the Great Spirit.

PARENTS OKAY WEDDING PLAN

Frederick, Md., Jan. 9 (AP)—Maryland State Police are searching for an 18-year-old Hood college girl, missing since Tuesday, to tell her she has her parents' approval to get married.

The Hood freshman, Ann Lorenzo, and Frank Steponzki, applied for a marriage license at Elkton, authorities learned after she was reported missing from the college.

The 48-hour period which all marriage license applicants must wait after first applying was up for the couple yesterday afternoon. They didn't show up, however, to claim the license.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lorenzo of Newton, N. J., who put her on a train to return to the college here after her holiday vacation expired Monday, relayed word to Maryland police through New Jersey state police to inform their daughter she had their consent to marry, Police Lt. Charles W. Magana said.

Magana said witnesses have told of seeing the two together since Ann's disappearance was reported.

Steponzki operated a garage and filling station near Newton until recently, he added.

Bottle Of Soda Pop Leads To Frostbite

Philadelphia, Jan. 9 (AP)—Eight-year-old Donald Neil is nursing a couple of frostbitten fingers today—all because of a bottle of soda pop.

The youngster stuck his hand through an opening in a dispensing machine at a church recreation center last night and then couldn't get his fingers out again.
Several grownups tried to free Donald without success. Police and firemen finally pried the metal top off the machine.
The boy's hand had been in the machine so long by that time, however, that its cooling device had nipped his fingers badly enough to require treatment at Germantown hospital.

ENGINEERS NEW LOOK PROBLEM

Oklahoma City, Jan. 9 (AP) — Let Paris dream up new looks; Oklahoma City will engineer them.

Take the problem of the plunging neckline—which plunges clear to the waist in some new look dresses, exposing a narrow vertical section of the wearer's midriff.

The problem is to keep it from plunging too far—vertically or horizontally.

It was solved here by George H. Willis in the middle of a domestic crisis involving his shapely brunette wife.

Mrs. W. bought a slinky silk dress with the plunging effect—and then found no local shops sold the required underpinnings.

Willis took one glance at the price tag and reached for adhesive tape and wire. The result was crude but satisfactory—resembling an out-size pair of spring-clip ear-muffs worn around the back and chest, and so the job without infringing on the neckline.

Now Willis finds the necessity that mothered his invention may bring him a pretty penny—a St. Louis corset firm wants to market his design.

BACKING WALLACE
Philadelphia, Jan. 9 (AP) — The international executive board of the Food, Tobacco, Agricultural and Allied Workers Union, CIO, announced it will support Henry Wallace for the Presidency this year. The executive board, which met here yesterday, also recommended that all affiliated locals work for the election of Wallace and the creation of a new political party.

DORIS DUKE IS GIVEN DIVORCE

Jersey City, Jan. 9 (AP) — An absolute divorce from tobacco heir Doris Duke Rubirosa was granted yesterday to James H. R. Cromwell.

Mrs. Leslie Crouse, West King street, for several days.

The weekly program of the Littlestown Youth Center will be presented from 8 to 11 p.m., Saturday in the fire hall. The following committee will supervise the program: Mrs. Melvin Wehler, Mrs. Frederick Seibel, Mrs. George Bemiller, and Mrs. Harvey Pettyjohn.

former minister to Canada.

Both are finally divorced from each other in every state in the nation, by the New Jersey chancery court action.

Doris Duke's Reno divorce from Cromwell had not been recognized by New Jersey. She had since been married to Porfirio Rubirosa, Dominican ambassador to Argentina.

Cromwell's action before advisory master in chancery David Pindar was not contested by Mrs. Rubirosa.

The absolute decree becomes final in three months, after which, under New Jersey law, both husband and wife are permitted to remarry and any subsequent marriage would be recognized here.

While There's Plenty of Time for it!

The service work on these machines was scheduled several months ago. Now they're coming into our service shop during off-season months. . . . Yes, there's plenty of time for repair jobs before they go back into the field again.

You see, their owners are taking advantage of our Early Bird Service program. These farmers know that scheduled Blue Ribbon Service can protect valuable equipment—can forestall any breakdowns in the field.

How about applying that system to your own machinery? If any or all of your farm equipment needs service during the year ahead, get dates for them now on our Early Bird Service Schedule.

Cadillac

RECOGNITION

The genius of the automotive industry is famed the world over. To be universally recognized as the undisputed leader in such an industry is recognition of the highest order. And to have held that position for almost half a century is an honor well-nigh without parallel. It gives Cadillac both a deep sense of pride and a deep sense of responsibility to reflect that it has been so long — "the Standard of the World."

If you are waiting for a new Cadillac—please be assured that every effort is being made to further production. Demand is so great, however, that some delay in delivery is still inevitable. But hold to your purpose! There is no substitute for a Cadillac.

people. I came here because I liked the looks of the town and the people in it, and I have not been disappointed. It is a fine place to live and do business, one of the best."

When he opened his store here Mr. Zerfing had one employee, Robert Dougherty. Mr. Dougherty is now employed in the hardware department of the Montgomery Ward store at Hagerstown, Md.

Acquires Warehouse

Although the store has remained at its original location, the business itself has been considerably enlarged. In 1941 Mr. Zerfing purchased the Stock property, and with it obtained warehouse space on the alley back of Baltimore street and to the rear of his store. Part of this property was for many years a livery stable and another part housed the old Stock cigar factory. Deeds to the property extend back as far as 1796, and bear the name of James Gettys, founder of the town.

The Gettysburg store has changed little with the years, still purveying to Adams countians seeds, paints, hardware and electrical supplies. A few lines which were stocked 20 years ago have disappeared but in general it is still a hardware store in what the name implies. The business changes little with the years, although it has kept pace with demands and is entirely modern in every respect.

Has Branch Store

Seven or eight years ago Mr. Zerfing added an important adjunct to his hardware business—that of furnishing glass for nearly every purpose. Mr. Zerfing buys the glass, for windows, table tops, counters, show-cases, shelves, and safety glass for automobiles, and in his shop has it fashioned and cut to any demand.

In January, 1945, Mr. Zerfing took James S. Reaver, manager of the Gettysburg store, in partnership with him in the opening of a new hardware store in Littlestown. Clarence J. Krichten, Sr., is the manager of the latter.

The store here now has six employees besides Mr. Zerfing and Mr. Reaver. They are John H. Fissel, Rodney C. Peters, E. R. Harbaugh, Clarence J. Krichten, Jr., Harold E. Hess and Helen I. Mauss. The employees at the Littlestown store are

Mr. Krichten, Joseph Long and Ernest Sentz, Jr.

Daily Advertiser

Mr. Zerfing has advertised every day in The Gettysburg Times since he first opened the local store.

"Advertising pays, particularly newspaper advertising," he declared, in the light of his experience. "I don't think I have missed a single day having my advertisement in The Times. It has paid me to advertise."

Mr. Zerfing is married to the former Elsie M. Bistline of Blaine, Pa., and they have one daughter, Janet L., in school, now in St. Petersburg, Fla. Their home is at 42 Howard avenue.

Mr. Zerfing has been a believer in church.
